Helping you keep the power on

SRP understands the significance of keeping you in service. We care about your safety, which is why we have many programs and resources in place to help you in times of need.

What we're doing during the COVID-19 pandemic

We understand you may be feeling concerned and uncertain because of the coronavirus (COVID-19). We want to share what we're doing to help keep our community healthy while keeping the power on and water moving through the Valley.

How we're supporting customers and the community

How we're ensuring reliable power delivery

Other changes we're making during this time

Need assistance? We're here to help

SRP encourages customers who are experiencing difficulty paying their electric bill for any reason, to notify us as quickly as possible so we can make arrangements that can help avoid a worsening financial situation. Call us 24/7, even on holidays, at \(602\) 236-8888. We're here to help.

Frequently asked questions

Veronica Tavena-Perez thought she would be staying home to care for her 3-year-old son after retiring in November from her job as a social worker for the Pascua Yaqui Tribe.

She was at home watching a movie with her son when the phone rang one day in late May. Guadalupe Mayor Valerie Molina was on the line, and asked to meet at Town Hall the following day.
